

IN THE CLAIMS

1-17. (Cancelled)

18. (Original) A machine readable storage media containing executable program instructions which when executed cause a digital processing system to perform a method comprising:

consolidating in a consolidation payment service a first transaction data and a second transaction data; receiving at the consolidating payment service payment information in a single time from a user to pay for the first transaction and the second transaction; maintaining the anonymity of a user during a purchase of one of a product and service from one of the first suppliers and the second supplier; and presenting to the user a single transaction history which includes the first transaction and the second transaction.

19. (Original) The machine readable storage media of claim 18, wherein the method further comprises:

accessing a first digital payment right policy associated with the first product which determines a payment to one of an author, a signer, and an owner of the first product.

20. (Original) The machine readable storage media of claim 18, wherein the method further comprises:

paying through the payment consolidation service one of the author, the singer, and the owner of the product.

21. (Original) The machine readable storage media of claim 18, wherein the method further comprises:

paying through the payment consolidation service on of the author, the singer and the owner of the product.